9TH ANNUAL ALL KIDS FAIR HAS FABULOUS CLASSES AND ATTRACTIONS

March 20, 2019; East Hills, N.Y. – The 9th annual All Kids Fair returns to the Hilton Long Island/Huntington, with fabulous classes and attractions to entertain all.

This year's All Kids Fair will take place on Sunday, April 7 from 10-4:30. Every year, this fabulous children's expo has many draws for Long Island families, and this year it has expanded its presence at the hotel to "25,000 square feet of fun" in order to accommodate its growing attendance, according to Barbara Kaplan, director of the expo.

This year's event will have many favorites returning plus exciting new classes. The list includes: soccer, culinary arts, learn Spanish, Zumbini®, princess party, yoga, book reading, arts and crafts, gifted, and a band playing children's songs (Songs for Seeds). Some of the classes will be taught multiple times.

Attendee Lacey McKenna summed up her experience on Facebook last year. "We had an amazing time here at the All Kids Fair. I would recommend this fair to every family member out there."

There will be special guest visits by QuackerJack of the Long Island Ducks and Miss Long Island Teen 2019, Geanna Koulouris.

In addition to over 80 exhibitors, additional activities and attractions this year include a bounce house, a petting zoo, candy at the candy bar, and a huge snake and other animals to touch. In addition, The Butterfly Experience will be returning this year. Children and adults will be able to watch the beautiful, multi-colored butterflies flying around in a huge tent, or, for a small fee, are able to enter the tent with a feeding stick and have the butterflies come to them.

Another new feature is the Long Island Comic Book room, with cosplay, comic books, and various artists. The Big Bounce Theory will be bringing a kids' arcade including claw machines.

Jennifer Keegan of Your Local Kids Source, a multi-year sponsor and exhibitor, last April said she "had a great time at the All Kids Fair meeting tons of Long Island parents and enjoyed all the smiling faces on all the happy kids."

Every year, this fun-filled event offers exciting educational and leisure activities to interest kids and their families. The Fair offers choices for toddlers through high school, including kids who have special needs or are gifted. There will be information about schools, camps, after school activities, birthday party ideas, and college planning.

A charity drive to benefit The Book Fairies, a 501c3 that provides books to those in need will return this year.

Sponsors for this year's All Kids Fair are: Long Island Parent Magazine, Your Local Kids Source, Clowns.com, Hulafrog, Blank Slate Media, Long Island Business News, PSEG LI, and 516Ads.com.
